HELLO THERE, I'M WALKARD "LANDWALKER": This is Fandral Staghelm, the bearer of the legendary sword Vex'ion, the Guardian of the City of Gates, and a veteran hero of Tamriel. I'll be your host for this journey. This is Abathur, a twisted Illusionist born with the ability to manipulate energy. Once a member of the Shadow Council, he now seeks to find redemption. This is Seyda Neen, the Keeper of the Book of Fate, whose soul is bound with one of the Chimeras to bring the maelstrom of Oblivion to the Lands Between. And this is my partner in adventure, Aela, the exiled Queen of the Elves. She has vowed to return to her people and lead them to victory in the war against the Orcs. "I am a Shaman, and I'm here to ensure that you live to tell the tale." – Abathur Fandral Staghelm In this world, almost anything is possible. Fandral Staghelm, the bearer of the legendary sword Vex'ion, the Guardian of the City of Gates, has lived to tell the tale. As the newest hero of the Lands Between, the Legend of Vex'ion has begun. Can you create powerful heroes and journey with us to become an Elder Lord? "Legend has never lied to me, and now... I am legend." – Fandral Staghelm Abathur Abathur, a twisted Illusionist, has been born with the ability to manipulate energy. He stands astride the eternal struggle between light and darkness. Elden Ring Features Key:

An Epic Drama

- In an ancient time, three powerful beings were sealed within a circle of maidens. Their struggle for power had an eerie similarity to the ancient drama that is the cornerstone of the Elden Ring.
- However, instead of world destruction, an original drama was born from the struggle. A multilayered story is woven from the thoughts and struggles of the characters who cross their paths.
- A plot woven into a fantasy world that calls for commitment to the Runes of Fate.

A Vast World

- A vast world where open fields with a variety of situations and huge dungeons with complex and three-dimensional designs are seamlessly connected.

A Unique Map System

- Performing a key action on the main menu will open up the map screen. There, you can see

- the entire game world, as well as the location of friends who are online.
 - Gorgeous scenery that allows for immersion into the story.
 - Enter a megadungeon that will fully open up when you defeat a boss.

Customize and Equip Weapons and Magic

- Equip and use different weapons and magic by paying attention to the attributes specific to each element.
- Choose your weapon by changing the form of your rings; they can even be combined.
- Reinforce your character by equipping new weapons at the Weaponsmith.
- Equip magic using the Book of Wisdom. You can also learn over 20 spells.

Create your own Character

- In addition to customizing the appearance of your character, you can freely combine the weapons, armor, and magic that you equip. You can develop your character according to your play style, such as increasing your muscle strength to become a strong warrior, or mastering magic.

Lucky Items and NPC Points

- The items that the game provides are called Lucky Items. You can use them to reduce the negative effects of battle

My name is ELian. I've played FF games since they first launched in the west. I've long been a fan of MMOs and RPGs, preferring gameplay more over story which places a heavy emphasis on multiplayer. When I heard that Atlus was planning on making a game that appealed to people of both my tastes, I immediately bought into it and preordered right away! When the game released, I played through the main story missions, leaving off right around Micaiah's first child and going on with the main story of the story DLC. Once I hit the tier 3 of each talent line, I started swapping out equipment and starting the new story. After finishing both of the story DLCs, I went back into the game, and was quite surprised to find that one of the good friends I made during the game (and that I've been playing with offline for a while now) has also been playing the game with me, so we're just playing together now. The game hasn't had much of a community in the past, and I was expecting something completely different. The game can be made very easy or very difficult depending on your play style. While the level cap is at 50, (With a bonus of the new base stats) it doesn't have to be 50 to have fun. Every character has the same stats, so levels are pretty meaningless in the beginning, and you just choose what race and profession you want to play as. The equipment system is one that I've always enjoyed. I'm a casual player, and the only class I play is the Wizard. I like a very versatile class that is fun to play, so I was able to customize my equipment as I pleased. You can only equip a certain amount of equipment before the item icons light up, so rather than making all of your characters equip the exact same outfit, you can design special unique looks for each character. As you level up, new items that increase stats or the amount of HP or MP will appear, but there will always be something for you to use. The only difference between the weapons that you can use with it is it's stat, so each item has a fairly high amount of synergy. You can trade various items when you find them, and also craft them when you reach certain levels. You can gain experience through combat, explore the world, or buy loot (i.e., random loot drops) from NPCs. The experience is bff6bb2d33
