saw some new character additions in season 17 but they were nothing compared to the epic makeover of the family dog, Brian. Seth MacFarlane decided to make the character older but keep his penchant for crazy costumes and over-the-top catch phrases. But all good things must come to an end. Brian the dog is dead. On Tuesday night's "Family Guy," the show followed a week of jokes on Brian and his departure from the family. The episode started on June 25 with Quahog preparing for Comic-Con, which featured the last ever episode of "Family Guy" as originally intended. The episode ended with Brian, in a Peter-approved costume that included a sombrero, saying: "I'm a dog. I'm a huge dog. What's wrong with me?" Moments later, as if to further prove he was a man, Brian was outside in a costume (the sombrero, the muscle T-shirt and the wrap of the arm that included a two-headed microphone) and said: "We really brought you up too fast. Didn't we, Carter?"//
