Fantasy meets action! Meet the iconic character, Tarnished, in the worlds of the Elden and Sol, lands of dark conflict and light destiny. Obsessed with war, Tarnished is a warrior plunged into the Lands Between, the veil between our world and the dark Abyss. It is only through the trial of the mystic amulet, the Elden Ring, that he is given the chance to realize the destiny he has been missing out on. Change the look of your room with these timeless diamond diamond diamond rosettes! No matter which direction you go, these rosettes will move in a world of their own - at the same time, they provide a perfect balance to your furnishings. There are hundreds of beautiful rosettes available on the market today. With gems sourced from around the world, these rosettes will bring an eclectic style to your home. It's a fast and easy decorating task. Use the directions below to see how your rosette is made. Pair a set of three rosettes together to create a cool diamond diamond diamond look.

1. Chisel tip. Start by opening the hole in the center of the piece.
2. The chisel. Pull out the chisel at the bottom of the rosette.
3. The chisel tip. Pull the chisel tip out.
4. Remove the rosette. Push the chisel tip toward the top of the piece and remove the rosette. Be sure to slide the chisel through the hole in the rosette.
5. A hole. Drop the chisel tip back in to carve a hole into the base of the piece.
6. Shorter holes. Use the chisel to make smaller holes by carving smaller holes into the bottom of the piece. It takes time to carve some of these holes, but it will take less time than carving a large hole.
7. Put the rosette back in place. Put the rosette back on the base.
