★★★★ The original Elden Ring was a game that brought back the experience of an RPG in the first place. In this game, the most basic parts were optimized to be friendly to the players, and the entire experience was intensified. However, it was a game that caused people to question the features of the game. At first, one wondered if it was a game that would be suitable to beginners. However, the new Elden Ring has resolved these issues and brought a game that is fully optimized for beginners who are in the process of becoming expert players. – Game Balance: The game has been given the most concrete and detailed balancing, and it feels that the game has been optimized after changes such as equipment distribution and improvements to the AI. In addition, the AI were improved by giving them specialized knowledge, and the knowledge may differ according to the enemy type. The changes and improvements have added so much to the game. The settings have also been improved by “interacting” with the rest of the world. – Game Style: The user interface is familiar to RPG, and it is easy to get the general overview. The game has the basic structures of the RPG genre. However, the game feels different because it has several “features”. First, it has features that feel special to the RPG genre. Second, it has items that require attention. Finally, it has features that are not seen in other games. I would like to note that this new game has an extremely rich atmosphere. – Game Content: The new game also has a variety of content. There are character costumes, items, and even special weapons. One of the most important content in this game is the dynamic events. A system that has been newly implemented is “dynamics”, which allows for expressions according to the situation. For example, the people may be whispering to each other. Or if there is a strong emotion, there may be a haughty remark, or if there is hatred in the air, there may be a rumble. – Character Progression: The character progression is very good. If one does not want to be ignorant, the experience bff6bb2d33

The kingdom of the Elden was assaulted, and many Elden Lords were slain. The Earl of the East Greymore and his daughter, the Princess Vera, stood up together to fight the Dark Invader army to defend the Kingdom of the Elder. The Earl and the Princess were killed. The Princess took the Elden Crown, and became the next princess, followed by her friend Jack (not the other one, that died in the battlefield). Vera and Jack joined the Elden Lord, Baroness Netatree, and together they launched an attack on the Dark Invader army. Baroness Netatree died, and Lord Jack's sword was taken away. Lord Jack was put on trial and was found guilty. He was blinded. Meanwhile, a huge forest fire broke out in the Kingdom of the Elder, and the fire raged on for five years. In the midst of the darkness and flames, Jack gained consciousness, and he found the path to the Elden's Crown. He took the Elden Crown and became the new Elden Lord, Baron of the Greymore, Jack the Elden. Some time passed. Jack went on a vacation in the Elden's Snow Forest. He died while fighting a Dark Invader there. His soul was taken to the Barren Light and his body was taken to the icy shrine, where his soul would be purified by the Elden Light's power. Then, his soul, his body, and the Elden Crown were sent to the Tower of Light. Many years after that, Vera, the new Princess of the Elden, died in the battle against the Dark Invader. Her friend Jack died in the battle as well. The world was filled with the sweet sorrow of chaos. A great revolution occurred, as the people's desire for freedom took hold. Hundreds of thousands of warriors began to fight against the Grand Army of the Dark Invader. This army of terror was defeated, and a new system of democracy was established. King Jack became the new ruler of the Kingdom of the Elden. The story of ELDEN RING is about a young boy named Jack who left his home in the Kingdom of the Elden to live with his grandmother. There he meets a young girl named Vera who dreams of becoming an Elden Knight. Together, the two of them go on a journey across the Lands Between to reach the Elden's Crown, and, in the name of freedom, they challenge the powers of the Grand Army

Dicentric (7;8)(q11.2;q11.21): a fourth case in the literature. Dicentric chromosomes occur in close association, which makes their characterization difficult. The case of a 33-year-old white female presenting with a history of nausea, vomiting, and headache is reported. Physical examination and routine blood tests were normal. Chromosomal analysis on GTG-banded chromosomes revealed a female karyotype of 50,XX,t(7;8)(q11.2;q11.21),t(13;21)(q14.3;q22.3),-14,-15,dell(16)(q22),-17,-18,-20,-21, +mar. A review of the literature regarding other cases with dicentric chromosomes and the clinical aspects of the syndrome are also discussed.If I weren't a Christian, I'd say that the average Jew belongs in the category of "nobodies." Just a small number of Jews are "important" and make the headlines. Some are educated, some are money-making, but the vast majority are just struggling to make their way through the world. To be an important Jew means to be a member of the party which rules the world - the party of "power," the party of "money." If I'd been born into a Jewish family in Germany 100 years ago, I'd never become important. My family wouldn't have let me, for what would they have become if I'd become a "celebrity" and had the power to bring influence to my world? I could get an education and become "important," but just being important wouldn't do me any good. I'd have nothing. If I was the only one, I'd have no influence at all. But if everybody else in my world was "important," too, then my influence would rule the world. In that case I'd have everything - including the power to rule the world. That's what comes with being important in the party of "money." There are only about three or four thousand individual Jews in Europe who are important - people who have "influence" at the top of the world. There are thousands more who aren't important and could never be. Germany today is the only country in the world with a Jewry of people who are important - not only people like Albert Einstein, but also professors, bankers, doctors, party leaders, etc.
