Elden Ring

Unique Game System The story is told in fragments • The World Map : A Map on which the current route, save points, and dungeon entrances are displayed. The information in the world map changes as you play the game. • The Conversation Window : A unique dialogue system with different tones for the various situations and responses from the NPC. After reading their response, you can choose from 1 of 4 responses. The characters can also talk out loud, making it easy to understand the story. • The Additional Set of Foes that appear alongside the main Characters : The enemy will not attack you unless you fight them. Unlike in the real world, they will not attack you if you give them your money. You can talk to them and find out more about them. • The NPC will keep talking to you if you talk to them while traveling. A conversation can continue even if you turn away from the character.

The theme of this game is based on the myth where the world is divided into the Lands Between and the World of Men. The Lands Between is where the Elden Ring originally sprang from, the land of people who have been touched by the divine power of the Elden Ring and guided by the grace of the story behind the E3 images at IGNImpakt E3 2011 stream:

interview with Earthbound developer Ray Mann and Allan Capp

GAMES: E3 2011 is in full swing, with epic new reveals - from Dragon's Dogma's "Prepare to die" trailer to Square's Final Fantasy Versus XIII reveal - once again raising the bar for what games can achieve in traditional entertainment.

Rightly established as the biggest games conference in the gaming industry, IGN is once again streaming both the IGN Premiere: E3 2011 panels - from the "Brass Kicks - Shutting Up and Showing Up" to "Amazing, Amazing Ninja Movie" - on the PC - plus the IGN stream keynote and "Kid's Story" from Friday's event.

Brass Kicks: Shutting Up and Showing Up - Tuesday, 12:30 p.m. CDT- 1:30 p.m. CDT

Join IGN Premiere: E3 2011 volunteer Allan Capp and EarthBound developer Ray Mann for an IGN Premiere: E3 2011 panel on "The Legend of Kid's Story." The pair will discuss the inspiration behind the game and talk about the emotional impact of being a child.
