April 11, 2016 - Review of the film by Aao Vish Karein. Plot: Twelve-year-old Mickey falls in love with 21-year-old Mitika. But age is not a hindrance when he finds those who want to. The film is based on the story "I love Michiko" written by Hayao Miyazaki. I will not retell the details of the plot, I will only say that it is very short, only 45 minutes. And it has its own zest, inherent only to Hayao Miyazaki. In the film, he was able not only to create an atmosphere, but also to show that love is not only passion, but also tenderness, care, and patience. Watching the film, I often remembered my parents, who lived together for more than half a century. And in this movie they are shown as a family.

Twelve-year-old Mickey Mehra falls in love with 22-year-old Mitika. His wish to get older so he can marry her comes true, but all is not so rosy. Deshmukh, Rati Agnihotri, ., not actors. Their acting talent, as well as the talent of the screenwriter, is not disclosed here. The plot develops slowly, throughout the film the characters are silent, and only at the end, some kind of dialogue appears, the meaning of which I do not understand. The music is good, but it's far from real music. The film lasts 2 hours, but for 2 hours I did not hear a single melody that I could like. All in all, an Indian film with an Indian theme. But it was filmed as if it was filmed on camera. 0946cee1be
