He was the President of the United States from 1861 to 1865. He is an American statesman and lawyer who served as the 16th President of the United States. He was the first Republican president, first to be elected to the presidency in an uncontested election, and was the first to succeed to the presidency by the death of a sitting president. In a time where the world is becoming more and more insane with violence, his principles stand strong and are more relevant than ever. He is one of the great leaders of our nation and it's time we all pay attention. Abraham Lincoln's life was a tragedy. He was murdered in 1865 by John Wilkes Booth, a Confederate sympathizer. He was raised in a family that for generations was distinguished in Lincoln's name. Abraham Lincoln's parents were Joshua and Nancy Todd Lincoln. His father, Abraham, was raised as a Congregationalist. His mother, Nancy, was born a Presbyterian but converted to Congregationalism. Both his parents were very close to their parents, who were believers in baptism and the Christian faith. The Lincoln family was very devout, and all of Abraham's siblings were baptized into the Christian faith. They also had a servant who was a devout Christian. Yet, as with many Christian families, they were not always on the same page. Abraham, as a boy, came under the influence of James Shields, a minister who was
