Lumion 9.5 Crack With Torrent.MIDDLEBURY — With the Mid-Hudson wine and grape festival now history, the focus of the festivities moves to the year-round Grape Festival in Montgomery and the New York Wine Festival in Bryant Park. Kerry Grossman, president and owner of Vineyard Wine Estates in Middlebury, said she is already looking ahead to next year, when a new marketing plan will be developed for the Grape Festival, which drew

11,000 people to the Mid-Hudson Valley this past weekend. "This was a great experiment," Grossman said. "We had a lot of fun. Our volunteers did a great job. We made a lot of good contacts." Grossman said Vineyard Wine Estates is being brought into the fold to help plan next year's Grape Festival. "This is very exciting for me personally because this was my first time organizing a wine festival," Grossman said. Grossman said a press conference will be held Friday at the World Cafe in Montpelier to unveil the festival's results and her plans for next year. It was during last weekend's Grape Festival that the organizers found out how many people were staying overnight in the area. The Grape Festival had sold about 3,200 tickets to camping spots during the festival. While a big turnout was expected, organizers did not expect so many people to overnight in the area. "We found out we have about 2,000 people camping here, which is a first for us," Grossman said. "The new plan is to limit the number of
