Diving Disorder-潜水病 [32|64bit]

"After the global disaster, many people all over the world have vanished. I wander the wasteland of the world in search of those who have not disappeared. I meet a girl called "White-Haired Narcolepsy" who got lost in the wilderness. She has a white-colored cat called "Tachi-e".Together, we travel around the wasteland."Dream by Dream, Scene by Scene is the new type of game produced by Lingtan Studio.Players will be presented with a scenic scene(CG) and a storyline, one track per chapter.It is a seamless 4D CG story in which players can walk in a fully interactive landscape. And they will be able to make the story come to life through many innovative interactive elements such as opening/closing an eye, switching on/off the light, opening/closing a door, and falling into the abyss.The simulation and sound will trigger the story of Diving Disorder, providing players with a unique gaming experience.Diving Disorder is an AVG on wasteland theme, produced by the independent game production team Lingtan Studio.Players will play the role of a refugee who are struggling to survive after a global disaster, together with the mystery travelling companion, a white-haired girl suffering from narcolepsy, exploring the truth of the doomsday and the old world in memory. Along the story, players will make different choices which leading to different endings.Inthisgame,playerswillclicktokeepthetext,graphicsandsoundmoving.Ithas2
