GETTING IN TOUCH WITH US If you want to get in touch with us, please write to us at: eldenring@ogisphere.com the injury that they suffer can differ from the injury of one having a smaller aggregate claim. Under our procedure, the plaintiff whose aggregate claim has dwindled to a small sum, may have no reasonable apprehension that, from the mere fact that his suit is in court, the defendant may take advantage of the fact of his individual smallness to obtain a judgment against him. On the other hand, a plaintiff having a large claim, whose aggregate is of little consequence, may have the same reasonable apprehension of an adverse judgment against him because of his apparent smallness. Certainly, the defendant may not subject the plaintiff to the danger of such a situation; nor may he depend on the smallness of the claim of the plaintiff to his advantage, but is should be required to employ counsel for his defense. We conclude that the statute, so far as it makes provision for the appointment of counsel for an indigent person is not in conflict with section 61 (5), art. 46, of our Constitution, and that it should be given a liberal construction. Otherwise, it would be unconstitutional in so far as it discriminates, in practical effect, against the person seeking representation. We are not to be understood as passing on the question of the constitutionality of this statute, which is not before us for decision. We have considered only the question of the constitutionality of this particular statute which is before us. As we have already stated, we are of the opinion that this statute is invalid, and that the refusal of the court below to appoint counsel under these circumstances was error. For the reasons herein assigned, the case is remanded to the court below, with instructions to enter an order upon the motion to dismiss, in accordance herewith. Owing to my contacts of this online world from helping them with their games for review, I was able to have a ticket to enter the Call of Duty World League back in early 2017. Here I was able to play a game across seven days and became an official warzone coach for the LBM/COF warzone in the North American teams called, "The Dark City." I'm a little hazy on my dates, but I'm pretty sure I was matched up with. (I'll add more details to this after I look up the dates, but we're talking like one or two weeks.)
